MISCELLANEOUS READING.

THRILLING REVOLUTIONARY INCIDENT Mr. J. T. Headley is publishing in a week-ly religious paper, "The Diary of a Chaplain in the army of the Revolution." From it we extract the following: "At the battle of Bunker Hill, as the British were advancing through Charlestown to the attack, a soldier entered a house where the husband lay sick. His wife was young and beautiful, and hearing the soldier in the next room went out to meet him. He immediately addressed insulting proposals to her. Being angrily repulsed he attempted violence, when her screams aroused her sick husband from his bed. Nerved with the sudden excitement he leaped up, and seeing his wife struggling in the arms of a British soldier, ran him through the body. The man fell back on the floor, and as his eyes met those of his destroyer, he shrieked out, "my brother." The recognition was mutual, amounting to $347.766. More Prizes than Blanks.

A Russian correspondent of the Rochester Union relates the following anecdote of the Russian Czar, which shows that not even Emperors are exempt from the operations of sharpers:

"The Emperor Alexander gave a large order for the manufacture of cannon balls to some concern at Helsingfors, a port on the Gulf. They completed the order, stacked up Gulf. They completed the order, and delivered the balls, received their pay, and put the money in their pockets. Emperor being there one day, took it into his head to inspect the balls. Taking one up, he discovered it to be exceedingly light for iron, and taking out his knife scraped it, and behold it was a wooden ball painted black, as was the entire lot. He caused the arrest of the swindlers, and they were trans-

OUR MUSICAL FRIEND. WEEKLY publication of SHEET MUSIC, A suitable for the players and singers of the Home circle, and consisting of sixteen pages full fo-lio size, stitched in a handsome cover. It contains all the popular dances of the day; arrangements from the most favorite operas; seenas, songs, bal lads, airs, &c. An abundant supply of every thing that the popular taste demands; never too difficult, always instructive, and ever fresh and delightful.
The favor with which OUR MUSICAL FRIEND has been received by the public, and the commen dations it has won from the Press, are guarantees of its worth. A work so cheap, accurate and ele-gant, does not exist in any other country. The same amount of music procured at the regular stores would cost at least twenty times what it costs in "Our Musical Friend."
